

1.Purpose

The aims to establish clear rules governing by IS EG Halal to control the use of Halal certification marks by IS EG Halal certified companies.

2.Scope

This procedure is applicable on IS EG Halal certified companies with the Halal certification marks.

3.Responsibility

- Halal Certification unit
- IS EG Halal certified companies

4.Description of Activity

4.1 The followings are the rules established by IS EG Halal for the use of Halal certification marks.

The certification mark may be used in stationery (letterheads, invoices, greetings, etc.), even if not all the company's activities are certified, with the following limitations:

- IS EG Halal has established clear rules to restrict the use of the Halal mark in the case that only a small part of the company's activities is certified or in the case that only some activities of the company are.
- In the case of offers, if not all the offered activities fall within the scope of certification, a brand, legend or other means must be indicated, which activities are covered by the certification.
- In the case of catalogs of products or services, if not all activities are covered by certification, a clear distinction must be made between them.

Advertising material of any kind (press and TV advertisements, promotional material such as calendars, diaries, etc., billboards, buses, labeled vehicles, etc.) will follow the following rules:

- The advertisement must mention the certified company (as it appears on your certificate). The certification mark may not be used in advertisements where only the products or trademarks of the company appear without mentioning it.
- Only the certification mark associated with the scope (activities and venues) certified can be used. This implies that companies that do not have all their certified activities and venues will not be able to use the certification mark unless they clarify this fact in the advertisement itself or only announce the certified activities.
- Use of the IS EG Halal mark/ trademark is governed by the rules issued by IS EG Halal.
- The obligation to use the Halal certificate and the Halal markings permitted by the IS EG Halal.

IS EG Halal does not license or permit any organization or company to use the IS EG Halal / trademark logo on any printed or electronic media. Unauthorized use of the IS EG Halal logo / trademark can lead to legal action for infringement.
